

Biologisches Kolloquium Sommer 2019

Datum	Sprecher	Thema	Kontakt
29.4.	Prof. Dr. Ruth Schmitz (University of Kiel)	Methanotarchaea as part of the human microbiome: Friends or Foes?	Prof. Kaster
6.5.	Prof. Dr. Marcel Bucher (University of Cologne)	Mutual exchange of nutrients and its regulation in the arbuscular mycorrhizal symbiosis and beyond	Prof. Requena
13.5.	Dr. Pierre Stallforth (HKI Jena)	Structural and Functional Diversity of Pseudomonas-Derived Natural Products	Prof. Kaster
27.5.	Dr. Stefan Heckmann (IPK Gatersleben)	Towards harnessing meiosis in barley (Hordeum vulgare)	Prof. Puchta
3.6.	Prof. Dr. Norio Takeshita (University of Tsukuba, Japan)	Fungal-bacterial mutualistic interaction: Fungal highway and bacterial toll	Prof. Fischer
17.6.	Doktorandenseminar		Prof. Orian-Rousseau
24.6.	Dr. Mathias Leisegang (University of Frankfurt)	Epigenetics and long non-coding RNA targeting approaches to combat cardiovascular diseases	Prof. leNoble
27.6.	Fakultätstag	Scientific program to be announced	All colleagues
1.7.	Prof. Dr. Philipp Benz (TUM, Munich)	A taste for sweet and sour - Fungal sugar perception and utilization	Prof. Fischer
8.7.	Doktorandenseminar		Prof. Orian-Rousseau
15.7.	Prof. Dr. Jörg-Peter Schnitzler (Helmholtz Center, Munich)	The interplay of volatile terpenoids in the communication between poplars and fungi	Dr. Riemann

17:30 Uhr, Criegee-Hörsaal, Fritz-Haber-Weg 2-6, Kontakt: R. Fischer (0721-6084 4630)